Field 1 — Short Description (Next to the Photo)

Some help comes with a receipt — one they'll pull out every time you finally have something nice.

Qing answers with a golden sunflower and a line drawn in the dirt: I'd rather work my ass off every day of my life than give someone the power to say "you wouldn't have that if it weren't for me."

For the one who built it themselves and wants every brick to stay theirs.

Earned. Not owed.

Field 2 — Long Description (Description Tab)

There's a special kind of tired that comes from doing it all yourself.

And there's a special kind of freedom that comes with it.

Nobody gets to take credit for what you carried on your own back.

A Sunflower That Grew Without a Handout

A half-bloom sunflower in warm golden yellow opens over a deep brown center, with I'D RATHER WORK MY ASS OFF EVERYDAY OF MY LIFE THAN GIVE SOMEONE THE POWER TO SAY lettered in sunflower-yellow capitals and "YOU WOULDN'T HAVE THAT IF IT WEREN'T FOR ME" in bold letters on the line beneath it.

It's the shirt for the first-generation earner, the single parent, and the self-made founder who never forgot what it cost — and with thirty-two affirmations in the Sunflower series, every hard worker can find their own.

Because what you earn with your own hands no one can ever hold over your head.

The Perfect Gift for the Self-Made

The moment your sister hands over the keys to the house she bought on her own, or your friend pays off the last loan and owes nobody anything — that's the moment this shirt was made for.

It's right for the single mom, the first-generation college grad, and the business owner who bootstrapped every dollar — perfect for a new-homeowner gift, a debt-free celebration, a business anniversary, or a birthday for the hardest worker you know.
