Field 1 — Short Description (Next to the Photo)

She's the one you call first with good news and the one who somehow shows up before you even ask.

Xyla puts it in writing: a red Emotional Support Daughter badge for the kid who grew into your favorite person to lean on.

For the daughter who's quietly become one of the strongest people in the family.

Some titles you're born into. This one, she earned.

Field 2 — Long Description (Description Tab)

At some point she stopped being just “the daughter” and became one of the people you actually call when things get hard.

Nobody assigns that role — she just kept showing up, listening, and somehow always saying the right thing.

Being someone's steady person isn't small, and she deserves a way to own that, not just assume it's expected of her.

A Badge for the Daughter Who Shows Up

A warm red medical-badge emblem — two simple figures leaning together over a heartbeat line — circles the word DAUGHTER like a credential she quietly earned over years of showing up.

It's the shirt that makes the whole family laugh and then go quiet for a second, because everyone knows exactly how true it is.

Because being someone's steady person, especially your own family's, is a strength worth claiming.

The Perfect Gift for the Daughter Who's Always There

The moment she shows up with exactly what you needed before you even asked — that's the moment this shirt earns its spot.

It's right for the daughter who's become the family's quiet rock and the sister who holds the group chat together — perfect for a birthday, graduation, or any day she deserves to hear it.
